

Welder Fabricator and Shop Support

About us

Olsen Beal is a growing industrial construction company that specializes in the erection of steel bridges and wind turbines. Our mission is to be a leader – in the way we treat people, the solutions we provide and the effort we put in – for our employees, clients and for the industry we serve.

The pride of our company is our people. Their skills and dedication to people, safety, quality, reliability and value are what makes us successful. Which is why, when it comes to our employees, we are committed to providing career opportunities designed with them in mind.

The big picture

Olsen Beal is seeking hard working and reliable candidates to fill the position of Welder Fabricator and Shop Support. This position will be responsible for welding, layout, fitting and fabricating of structural steel to support construction projects, assisting with loading/unloading tools and equipment in the yard, and performing basic maintenance on tools and equipment.

What you will be doing

- Fabricating and constructing steel components
 - Reading and interpreting design specifications, blueprints, sketches, etc.
 - Welding, layout, fit up and finishing completed products.
 - Double-checking design specifications before commencing with cutting work.
 - Safe understanding and operation of shop tools/equipment including hydraulic punch/shear, magnetic drills, flame cutters, band saw, etc..
 - Performing quality checks on completed products.
- Assisting with project prep and completion in the shop/yard
 - Loading/unloading tools and equipment.
 - Operates forklift to load/unload trucks and trailers.
- Perform basic maintenance
 - Inspection/maintenance of shop tools and equipment.
 - Perform basic maintenance on trailers and vehicles such as brakes, lights, service, etc.
- Build relationships and champion company culture
 - Complies with all regulatory and company safety regulations.
 - Keeps work area organized and clean.
 - Daily, set exemplary standards of ethics and stewardship of company resources, function as a team player and help maintain trust and communication.
 - Completes other duties as assigned.

Required qualifications

- Minimum of 5 years of experience in steel fabrication and welding.
- Ability to read and interpret dimensional blueprints to plan and layout fabrication design dimensions.
- Proficiency with steel fabrication tools/equipment including hydraulic punch/shear, band saw, flame cutters and magnetic drills.
- Ability to lift and manipulate at least 65 lbs and understand when to utilize mechanical means of material handling to minimize personal risk.
- Ability to stand for long periods of time.
- Strong interpersonal, team building, communication, problem solving, and planning skills.
- Detail orientated with the ability and organization to manage multiple tasks.
- Welding certification in SMAW and FCAW processes.

OLSENBEAL

- Ability to safely operate forklifts and other material handling equipment (jib hoists, material carts, etc.) – Company will provide training.
- OSHA 10 (Company will train)
- Current driver's license.

Preferred qualifications

- Experience in bridge construction industry.
- Associates degree in Mechanical, Automotive, Welding, etc.
- Computer skills with working knowledge of MS Office applications.
- Certified Rigger.

Benefits:

- Health and Dental insurance.
- 401k match.
- Paid time off on major holidays.
- Vacation and sick leave.
- Work schedule 6am-4:30pm Monday-Thursday.
- Fridays and weekends off.